

We have been customers of XM Radio for a long time, and find it to be an outstanding alternative to land-based broadcast media. In a free competitive environment, different businesses should be allowed to provide customers and potential customers with alternative forms of access to information. Limiting satellite broadcasters from offering local programming is anti-competitive and raises some serious First Amendment issues. Please reject petition 04-160 from the National Association of Broadcasters.